a history of the period in broad-brush terms. It seems unlikely that he could do a comprehensive study in a single year, but his work could be continued by the History Staff or another visiting scholar. The Military History Institute at Carlisle Barracks has had an extensive oral history program since 1970 and has agreed to provide training and other appropriate assistance as needed.

1. Bill,

This is worth doing-and I think worth the Agency's dollars (since most of it is personal services).
